

JULY 12, 2024 FLINT ARTWALK • 6-9PM

BAU-HÖUSE 511 Buckham Alley
African American Artist Series, open mic

Biggy Coffee 615 S. Saginaw St. (in The Ferris Wheel)
Cainaen McGhee, acoustic singing

Brush Alley Skateshop 408 S. Saginaw St.
Photography by Brian O'Leary

Buckham Gallery 121 W. 2nd St. I Get My Hit And Then I Run With It | Jessika Edgar, Located in the Newly Unfamiliar | Laura Carpenter Truitt & Amy Reckley,
Live music from Babak Elahi, courtesy of Mott Community College

Churchill's Food & Spirits 340 S. Saginaw St.
Flint Underground Function, Local Arts and Music Forever

First Presbyterian Church 746 Saginaw St.
Birds Doing Stuff, Photography by Steve Jessmore

Flint Local 432 124 W. 1st St.
Flint Local 432 Presents: Comedian Daniel J Vela

Flint Trading Co. 134½ W. 2nd St.
Featuring Emmett Otter's Favorite Things

Greater Flint Arts Council 816 S. Saginaw St.
Michigan Artists Invitational featuring Regina Dunn, Anne Furnaris, Erik Jones and LA Moore, music by the Mike Espy Band

MW Gallery 815 S. Saginaw St.
From Her Perspective: Intersections of Gender and Race, music by Na Bonsai

Priceless Dreams 130 E. 2nd St., Suite 103 (in the Capitol Theatre building) Ladore Textile CEO Dorothy Huddleston

Queens' Provisions 421 Garland St.
A Movable Feast with free Sangria Taste Testing

Riverbank Arts 400 N. Saginaw St. (in Northbank Center)
Healing Frequencies, an intimate night of soulful harp and vocal music from Ahya Simone, collective art-making and sunset meditation to close out Riverbank's Queer Resilience: Art as Liberation exhibition

St. Paul's Church 711 Saginaw St.
Digital Art by Taura Williams and music by Moment's Notice

The Kickback 601 S. Saginaw St. Featuring local artists, t-shirt designers, musicians and food vendors

The Local Grocer 601 Martin Luther King Ave.
Observations: Drawings From Life, showcasing work by Mott Community College students

Totem Books 620 W. Court St.
Karaoke with Buckham Alley Theatre, sneak preview by the cast of Breeder, an original play

The map shows the Flint Artwalk area with streets Saginaw, Harrison, S. Saginaw, Kearsley, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, University, 2nd Ave., 1st Ave., Union, Beach, Church, E. Court, and Martin Luther King. Event locations are marked with black boxes containing the name of the venue. A river is shown flowing through the area. A logo for 'WE GROW THE ARTS' Greater Flint Arts Council is in the bottom left corner.

For information on arts and culture, or to include your event, artist bio and more for FREE, visit geneseeflarts.com.

JULY 12, 2024 FLINT ARTWALK • 6-9PM

BAU-HÖUSE 511 Buckham Alley
African American Artist Series, open mic

Biggy Coffee 615 S. Saginaw St. (in The Ferris Wheel)
Cainaen McGhee, acoustic singing

Brush Alley Skateshop 408 S. Saginaw St.
Photography by Brian O'Leary

Buckham Gallery 121 W. 2nd St. I Get My Hit And Then I Run With It | Jessika Edgar, Located in the Newly Unfamiliar | Laura Carpenter Truitt & Amy Reckley,
Live music from Babak Elahi, courtesy of Mott Community College

Churchill's Food & Spirits 340 S. Saginaw St.
Flint Underground Function, Local Arts and Music Forever

First Presbyterian Church 746 Saginaw St.
Birds Doing Stuff, Photography by Steve Jessmore

Flint Local 432 124 W. 1st St.
Flint Local 432 Presents: Comedian Daniel J Vela

Flint Trading Co. 134½ W. 2nd St.
Featuring Emmett Otter's Favorite Things

Greater Flint Arts Council 816 S. Saginaw St.
Michigan Artists Invitational featuring Regina Dunn, Anne Furnaris, Erik Jones and LA Moore, music by the Mike Espy Band

MW Gallery 815 S. Saginaw St.
From Her Perspective: Intersections of Gender and Race, music by Na Bonsai

Priceless Dreams 130 E. 2nd St., Suite 103 (in the Capitol Theatre building) Ladore Textile CEO Dorothy Huddleston

Queens' Provisions 421 Garland St.
A Movable Feast with free Sangria Taste Testing

Riverbank Arts 400 N. Saginaw St. (in Northbank Center)
Healing Frequencies, an intimate night of soulful harp and vocal music from Ahya Simone, collective art-making and sunset meditation to close out Riverbank's Queer Resilience: Art as Liberation exhibition

St. Paul's Church 711 Saginaw St.
Digital Art by Taura Williams and music by Moment's Notice

The Kickback 601 S. Saginaw St. Featuring local artists, t-shirt designers, musicians and food vendors

The Local Grocer 601 Martin Luther King Ave.
Observations: Drawings From Life, showcasing work by Mott Community College students

Totem Books 620 W. Court St.
Karaoke with Buckham Alley Theatre, sneak preview by the cast of Breeder, an original play

The map shows the Flint Artwalk area with streets Saginaw, Harrison, S. Saginaw, Kearsley, 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, University, 2nd Ave., 1st Ave., Union, Beach, Church, E. Court, and Martin Luther King. Event locations are marked with black boxes containing the name of the venue. A river is shown flowing through the area. A logo for 'WE GROW THE ARTS' Greater Flint Arts Council is in the bottom left corner.

For information on arts and culture, or to include your event, artist bio and more for FREE, visit geneseeflarts.com.